Holy Ground

As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance, but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy." 1 Peter 1:15-16

Here are two scenes from the Old Testament. The first is found in Exodus 3 and it portrays Moses' encounter with God on Mt. Sinai – the first encounter, when he saw the bush that burned yet was not consumed by the fire. As Moses approached to examine this marvelous phenomenon, God spoke to him and told him, "Do not come near; take your sandals off your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." Then, after God had identified himself, the text says that Moses "hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God."

The second scene comes from Leviticus 24. We are told of a man whose mother was Israelite and whose father was Egyptian. This man, the text says, "blasphemed the Name, and cursed." The man was brought to Moses who then asked God for direction. God's response was, "Whoever blasphemes the name of the Lord shall surely be put to death." And so the people of Israel stoned the man to death.

Where does a person go today to find "holy ground"? The answer is "nowhere" and "everywhere." God is spirit, and he is present everywhere; therefore, there is no single place where he may be found. In a sense, anywhere we are is "holy," because God is ever present. What does that say to us about how we are to live? Does that mean we are to go around barefoot and hiding our faces all the time? Or does it say something about how we are to think and speak and act?

Consider the text from 1 Peter, quoted above. The expectation is that people who wear God's name will walk (live) in a way that respects, honors and lifts up that name. It speaks to the need to put aside, to stop doing anything conforms to worldly passions, and to put in their place actions, attitudes and speech that reflect and proclaim the holiness of God. God is holy. His name is holy. God expects his people to treat his name with respect, even fear.

So, what does your speech communicate about God?

God Among the Generations

Text: (Exodus 20:12)

Introduction:

- Do we generalize the principle, water it down? (Mark 7:9-13).
- God designed family so children develop core values and character (Rom. 1:30; 2 Tim. 3:2).
- We have an awesome responsibility to train our children right (Deuteronomy 21:18-21).
- Being a father or mother may be the most demanding role we will ever take on!

How do we honor them?

1. Respect Their Role (Psalm 78:5-8)
2. Value Their Advice (Proverbs 13:1; Colossians 3:20; Ephesians 6:1)
3. Meet Their Needs (1 Timothy 5:4; Jn. 19:26-27).
4. Affirm Their Efforts (Proverbs 23:22).
5. Forgive (Psalm 27:10)
6. Parents Should Be Honorable (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)
