Walking with God

The Bible says, "Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him (Genesis 5:24). What will my gravestone say? I've seen some interesting epitaphs, but none as impressive as Enoch's. Essentially, all we know about him is his relationship with God, a walking relationship. With whom do you take walks? Your spouse? Your children? Your friends? Your workout buddies? Think of the conversations you have. Typically, they're pleasant and memorable. It's hard to argue with people and walk with them at the same time. You can discuss and reason while you walk. It's difficult to do that while running, hurrying through life. Enoch encourages us to slow down and take a walk with God, to discuss life and acquire His wisdom.

Are you walking with God regularly? What energy does that require? Noah also walked with God (Genesis 6:9). The parallel ideas in that passage are his blamelessness and righteousness. He was unique in his time because he was willing to walk with God when all others would not. It takes resolve and great strength of character to walk with God when so many others will not. Are you willing?

The New Testament encourages us to walk in a worthy manner (Colossians 1:10). We can choose the paths in which we walk. We can walk in love (Ephesians 5:2), in truth, (3 John 1:4), and in the light (1 John 1:7). We can walk by the spirit (Galatians 5:16), which is walking by faith, not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7). Why? Because if we walk in darkness we cannot see anyway, and if we walk by faith we will be walking in the Light of God's word (Psalms 119:105). Will you choose to walk in newness of life today (Romans 6:4)?
