Heeding the Warnings

These days people are offended when you warn them. They would rather have their feelings smoothed over than to avoid the calamity they are about to experience.

So we are offended at the doctor who suggests we need to lose weight; we are offended at the policeman who suggests we endanger human life when we flout the rules of the road; we are offended at the politician who suggests we should sacrifice rather than grab entitlements for the good of the country.

As Wilfred Owen once put it, "All the poet can do is warn."

You can get annoyed at the weatherman, but you had better also get the umbrella if he says it's going to rain.

The Bible, too, is full of warnings. These are not the popular sections of scripture.

"Unless you repent," Jesus cried out, "you will all likewise perish" (Luke 13:3, ESV). So will we become peeved and perish?

"Whoever does not believe," he warns, "will be condemned" (Mark 16:16). So will we believe and be baptized, or will we be condemned?

Consequences for sin are real. Eternal punishment is real. God's anger towards the unrepentant is real.

Sometimes a prophet shouts from the rooftops to convey his message. Sometimes he whispers his warning, even in tears. Paul did: "Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night and day to admonish everyone with tears" (Acts 20:31).

I remember a conversation when one speaker declared: "I like that church (the one she had just joined) because they don't ask me to change anything in my life!" Really?

Was she implying that she did not need to change anything?

Or that she resented the implication that she needed to change?

Or that God requires no change in our lives?

Beware the church that does not ask you to change! To repent is to change; to be converted is to change; to become a Christian is to change; to grow spiritually is to change!

We need warnings; we need to change. We will probably not do the second until we hear the first.

“All Souls Matter”

(Chris Borland)

Lesson Notes:

Bible Trivia

Answer: Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord (Genesis 10:9).

Question: Who was the first murderer in Scripture?

News & Prayer Requests

We're thankful that Steve Moore arrived at the Atrium on Friday and will do more rehab locally.

Please pray for Jennifer Caldwell, Micah Nehring O'Neall's mother. She is in a Lubbock hospital with severe back pain and other health problems.

Please continue praying for Billy Eubank, Randy's dad. He's been transitioning from hospital to rehab facility after his stroke. Also pray for Randy!

Please pray for Chris Wheat as he waits for his appointment with a neurosurgeon on Tuesday to evaluate his cervical spondylosis for treatment.

Please pray for our church leadership as they continue to navigate the health crisis with us.

Please continue to pray for healthcare professionals and decision makers worldwide.

Please pray for church family all over the world worshipping and connecting through technology.

Upcoming Activities!

We're very excited to resume worshipping together here at the church building today! No Bible classes or evening worship for the time being.

There will be a number of adjustments to our worship service today so please be ready to adapt with us as patiently as possible. Thank you!

The service will still be recorded every week for those unable to attend in person.

Please check Facebook, email & northsidewaco.org for social distance guidelines. Thank you for cooperating as we transition one step at a time.

Opportunity is available to men who would like to record a video lesson for the congregation. Please contact Chris Wheat for assistance, and thank you!

Online Encouragement is our best method for now. Please check our website and Facebook page for videos, prayer needs, and study opportunities.

Encouragement cards, texts, and phone calls are a wonderful way to check in on your brothers and sisters at this time. Contact us for addresses.
