When Was the Last Time You Were Wrong?

Humility is such an elusive virtue. Once you think you've found it, pride tends to sneak in the backdoor.

Our adversary knows that one of the ways he can render us ineffective is by seducing us towards pride. We can be so proud of what God has done in our lives that we forget the "what God has done" part of that sentence, and become arrogant. We can forget that we once were lost, but by the grace of God, we have been found.

So here's a check-up for us: when was the last time that you said "I was wrong?"

Not the last time that you said, "I'm sorry you felt that way." That's a "non-apology apology." A "fauxpology" that doesn't admit guilt, but puts the blame on the other person.

Not the last time you said "Mistakes were made" instead of "I missed up."

Not the last time you said "If I offended you..." instead of "Since I hurt you..."

Not the last time you said "I'm sorry, but..."

When was the last time you said, "I'm sorry. I was wrong. I take responsibility. I should have done better?"

It's easy for our pride to keep us from admitting that we were wrong. Sometimes our pride even keeps us from realizing that we were wrong. If you can't remember the last time you offered a real apology, or the last time that you were wrong about something, it could be that the devil has pulled the wool over your eyes.

James 5:16 offers us the Christian pattern: "Therefore, confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results." (NLT)

Matthew Hiatt

The Fool's Way (Proverbs 18:1-9)

Reality: Fools make poor decisions, revealing absence of wisdom, leading to humiliating and destructive behavior.

Fools Lack Wisdom (Proverbs 18:1-3)

- They isolate themselves, are opinionated (Proverbs 11:14; James 1:19)
- They will be humiliated (Proverbs 18:3)

Fools Are Loose with Words (Proverbs 18:4-8; James 3:8)

- They do not see the delight or disgrace of their words (Proverbs 19:5; Mark 14:55-59)
- They do not see the danger and destruction of their words (Proverbs 10:14; 12:13; 19:29; Galatians 6:6-7; Matthew 12:36-37)
- They do not see the disease in their words (Proverbs 16:28; 26:20, 22)

Fools Are Lazy Concerning Work (Proverbs 18:9)

- They are poor in performance (Colossians 3:23-24)
- They keep company with destructive partners (1 Corinthians 1:30; John 1:14; 7:46; 4:34; 19:30; Philipians 2:8)

Bible Trivia

Answer: Steven was the first Christian martyr (Acts 6:7-8:2).

Question: What was the first war mentioned in the Bible?

Prayer Requests

Billy Eubank, Randy's father, has now transitioned to rehabilitation at St. Catherine's.

We're thankful that Steve Moore's surgery was successful. They are treating the mass like cancer.

Please continue to pray for healthcare professionals and decision makers all worldwide.

Please pray for those in food and service industries trying to supply everyone with what is needed.

Please pray for brothers and sisters all over the world who are worshipping in small groups and families and joining together through technology.
