Read It all The Days of His Life

"And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the Lord his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes" (Deuteronomy 17:19).

When God chose a king for Israel this king was to heed strict teachings of God. He was not to live in any way he chose.

These were the prohibitions to the king.

Do not multiply horses for yourself (Deuteronomy 17:16).

Do not multiply wives for yourself lest your heart be turned away (17a).

Do not multiply silver and gold (17b).

There were several positive commands for the king.

He shall have his own copy of the law of God (18).

He shall read from this law of God all the days of his life (19).

He shall fear the Lord his God (19).

He shall be careful to observe all the words of the law of God (19).

He shall be humble (20a).

He shall not turn away to the right or left from the commandments of God (20b).

Blessings would come to the king if he obeyed.

"That his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel" (Deuteronomy 17:20).

These are good commandments for Christians today.

Do not multiply automobiles, wives and money. Life consists of far more than these items.

Have your own personal copy of the Bible and be a daily Bible reader!

Learn to fear God and keep His commandments.

Be humble toward God and your fellow man.

Do not turn to the left or right, but strictly follow the teachings of God.

When we observe these things we will be blessed. "Come, you blessed of my Father; inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world" (Matthew 25:34).
