Walking with Grandpa

I took a walk with Grandpa a few years ago and enjoyed hearing some of his famous, favorite stories. It was a unique experience always lifting my spirits. I believe I know why, and it wasn't just the difficulty of keeping up with the long strides of a strong, athletic, almost six-and-a-half-foot tall man: he had such a positive attitude and outlook on life! He always gave passers by the old fashioned "Good Morning!" This greeting inevitably catches someone by surprise in the mind-your-own-business society of the 21st Century. After the initial astonishment, most people do respond because somewhere in the recesses of their minds they find that dusty old book on the shelf entitled, "Good Manners My Momma Taught Me."

This story naturally brings me to Satan. Wait a minute—stay with me! Don't you think Satan has deduced that one of the best ways to attack Christians in a depressed and grumpy world is to make us feel that way too? I know that's what he does to me. I'm not suggesting we pretend we have no problems, or we live in perfect circumstances. Grandpa had a long life with a great number of problems he could have complain about, but he didn't allow such things to interfere in his interactions with the lost of this world.

In Ephesians 4:17-32 Paul tells us to walk in love, not in futility. In 1 John 1:7 we are to walk in the light, not the darkness. When we choose to walk with God, he expects us to be positive, focusing on good things and allowing Him to address our problems. Dwelling on the negative will not improve the situation. When you go to church, the grocery store, or the family reunion, don't let Satan kill your optimism. God has given us an enumerable list of reasons to rejoice. Think positive, take a walk in the sunshine, and greet the people you meet! (Philippians 4:8-13)

Thoughts from Chris Wheat

Proverbs Code? (Proverbs 30:1-33)

Truth: The way the world really works (wisdom) can only be perceived through God's Son Jesus!

Look to Christ for Wisdom (Proverbs 30:1-9; John 3:13; Revelation 22:18-19)

- Do not give me poverty! (James 1:5)
- Do not give me wealth! (Matthew 6:11; Luke 11:3)

Look to Christ for Salvation (Proverbs 30:10-14)

- Cursing not blessing... (Luke 2:51; John 19:26-27)
- Pure but unwashed... (Luke 2:52)
- Proudful...
- Teeth like knives... (Revelation 19:17-18; Galatians 3:13)

Look at the World Through Christ's Lens (Proverbs 30:15-33; 1 Kings 4:33-34)

- Appetite Warnings

- Money/wealth... (Genesis 30:1)
- Sex... (1 Corinthians 6:12-20; Proverbs 5:21)
- Status/pride...

- Wisdom Instructions

- Four small animals - Ant, badger, locust, lizard...
- Three stately animals - Lion, rooster, ram... (Genesis 49:9-10)

Conclusions - (Colossians 1:15-20; Isaiah 11:1-5)

Bible Trivia

Answer: Abraham bought the cave of Machpelah (Genesis 23:3-20).

Question: What was the first instance of book burning mentioned in the Bible?
